

Populism in Asia:

0917

Time Slot	Presenter	Title
15/11/2017
9.00-9.15	Registration
9.15-9.30	Welcome Address
9.30-11.00	Conceptual Background: Populism and its effects
	Marco Bünte, Monash University Malaysia	Populism and Democracy in Asia
	Andreas Ufen, GIGA Hamburg	Populists and the Construction of Enemies in Southeast Asia
11.00-11.15	Tea/ Coffee Break
11.15-12.45	Session II: Types of Populism in Asia I	Chair
VIA SKYPE	Chris Winkler, Hokkaido University	Populism in Japan: Rising Force or Afterthought?
	Meredith Weiss, University of Albany, SUNY	Is Malaysian Politics Populist?
	Discussant: Terence Gomez, UM
12.45-14.00	Lunch Break
14.15-15.45	Session III: Types of Populism in Asia II
	Julio Teehankee, De La Salle University	A Narrative of Two Filipino Populists: Estrada and Duterte
	Marcus Mietzner, Australian National University	Technocrats, Islamists, Ultrationalists: Competing Populisms in Democratic Indonesia
	Discussant: Bill Case ( University of Nottingham Malaysia )
15.45-16.15	Tea/ Coffee Break
16.15-16.30	Photo Session
16.30-18.00	Session IV: Types of Populism in Asia III
	Berk Esen, Bilkent University	The Rising Competitive Authoritarianism in Contemporary Turkey
	Sanchir Jargalsaikhan, Ulan Bator, Sustainable Development Strategy Institute	Reactionary Populism and its Manifestations in Modern Mongolia
	Discussant: Marco Bünte
19.00	Conference Dinner

16/11/2017
9.30-11.00	Session VI: Populism and the Public in Asia	Chair:
	Michael Connors, Nottingham University Malaysia	Populism for Liberal Democracy in Thailand: The Logics of Appropriating Thaksin
	Cleve Kevin Robert V. Arguelles, University of the Philippines	Reconceptualizing Populism: Perspectives from the Philippine Public
	Discussant: Andreas Ufen
11.00-11.15	Coffee Break
11.15-12.45	Session VI: Penal Populism in Asia
	Eugénie Mériéau, University of Göttingen	Penal Populism in SEA
	Mark Thompson, City University Hong Kong	Drugging Development: The War on Drugs and Social Injustice in Duterte's Philippines
	Discussant: Marco Bünte
12.45-14.00	Lunch Break
14.00-15.30	Session VII: Populism and Foreign Policy	Chair
	Sandra Destradi, GIGA Hamburg	Populism and Foreign Policy: The Case of India
	Aries Arugay, University of the Philippines-Diliman	When Populists Perform Foreign Policy: The Philippines under Duterte in Comparative Perspective
	Discussant: Andreas Ufen
15.30-16.00	Coffee Break/Tea Break
16.00-17.00	Session IIX: Conclusion and Way ahead
	Marco Bünte, Monash University Malaysia
	Andreas Ufen, GIGA Hamburg
	End of Conference
19.00	Conference Dinner

The workshop is sponsored by Monash's School of Arts and Social Sciences, Global Asia 21 Multidisciplinary Platform and the GIGA German Institute of Global and Area Studies in Hamburg.