

Launch Event for the Research Network Sustainable Global Supply Chains

9th March 2021

Registration: please register here

14.00 Introduction, StS Norbert Barthle, Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development: Why we support the „Research Network Sustainable Global Supply Chains“

14.15 Introducing the Research Network Sustainable Global Supply Chains

Jann Lay, German Institute for Global and Area Studies (GIGA)

14.35 Panel discussion: How supply chain research can help solving societal challenges

What are the most relevant research gaps in global supply chain research and how can this research inform policymaking with a view to making supply chains more sustainable?

- Pol Antrás, Harvard University
- Khalid Nadvj, University of Manchester
- Roberta Rabellotti, University of Pavia
- Daria Taglioni, World Bank

Moderator: Tilman Altenburg, German Development Institute (DIE)

15.50 Break

16.00 Parallel sessions

Session 1: Panel session Pros and cons of due diligence laws	Session 2: Research session New insights from supply chain research
Intended and unintended effects and design principles of European and German due diligence laws <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Gabriel Felbermayr, IfW</li> <li>• Markus Krajewski, FAU</li> <li>• Adriana Abdenur, CIPÓ</li> </ul> Moderator: Melanie Müller, SWP	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Victor Stolzenburg, WTO</li> <li>• Julia Cajal Grossi, Graduate Institute Geneva</li> <li>• Stefan Pahl, GIGA</li> <li>• Frauke Steglich, IfW</li> </ul> Moderator: Rainer Thiele, IfW

17.15. Wrap up

Günther Maihold, German Institute for International and Security Affairs (SWP)