

Leibniz Environment and Development Symposium (LEADS) 2023

Venue: RWI – Leibniz-Institut für Wirtschaftsforschung
 Hohenzollernstraße 1-3
 Essen

Program Overview

Day 1, Monday November 27

13:00	Arrival and registration
13:30	Welcome
13:45	Session 1: Environmental shocks and their socio-economic consequences Wolfgang Stojetz (ISDC - International Security and Development Center Berlin): Shocking social safety: Evidence from violence and drought in North-east Nigeria Discussant: Renate Hartwig (GIGA Hamburg & University of Göttingen) Abigail Opokua Asare (University of Oldenburg): Locust infestations and individual school dropout: Evidence from Africa Discussant: Anette Ruml (GIGA Hamburg) Julian Röckert (PIK & RWI): Extreme weather events and intra-household violence against children Discussant: Tilman Brück (IGZ & HU Berlin)
15:15	Keynote: Mascha Rauschenbach, Promoting evidence-based development cooperation through Strategic Evaluations
16:15	Coffee break
16:45	Session 2: Sustainable energy Yael Borofsky (ETH Zurich): Bringing light to the dark — Can solar public lighting improve nighttime life for the urban poor? Discussant: Maxie Sievert (RWI) Lise Masselus (RWI): 10 years after: Long term adoption of electricity in rural Rwanda Discussant: Philipp Trotter (University of Wuppertal) Philipp Trotter (Wuppertal University): A multi-criteria optimization approach to maximise the impact of development interventions across multiple Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs): The case of energy for local development in Uganda Discussant: Gunther Bensch (RWI)
19:15	Dinner at Gärtnerei, Klarastrasse 70

Day 2, Tuesday November 28

9:15	Welcome to Day 2
9:30	Session 3: Environmental policy design Isea Cieply (University of Göttingen): The impact of environmental regulation on innovation: Quasi-experimental evidence from China's Two Control Zones Policy Discussant: Kati Krähnert (RWI & University of Bochum) Wendy Chávez-Páez (ZEF Bonn): Who has the power? Lessons are drawn upon conflict management in two co-managed mangrove territories in the Gulf of Guayaquil, Ecuador Discussant: Maxie Sievert (RWI) Héctor Herrera (University of Antwerp): Climate injustice as racial injustice in green bonds: The case of municipal green bonds of water infrastructure in Cape Town, South Africa, and San Francisco, California (US) Discussant: Lasse Loft (ZALF)
11:00	Coffee break
11:30	Keynote: Erwin Bulte, The livelihood and conservation impacts of community-based forestry: Experimental evidence from Ethiopia
12:30	Poster session & Lunch Bonna Antoinette Tokou (ZALF): Ecological and social services of cocoa agroforestry systems to improve the livelihoods of farmers and sustainable cocoa production in Côte d'Ivoire Discussant: Anette Ruml (GIGA Hamburg) Deyshawn Moser (ZMT Bremen): Facing global environmental changes: The role of culturally embedded cognitive biases Discussant: Tilman Brück (IGZ & HU Berlin) Ihtiyor Bobojonov (IAMO - Leibniz Institute of Agricultural Development in Transition Economies): Determinants of participation and ex-ante impact of credit bundled index insurance: Empirical evidence from Mongolian wheat production Discussant: Kati Krähnert (RWI & University of Bochum) Jakob Latzko (University of Göttingen): Farmers' Credit Choices for oil palm replanting and long-term investments – Evidence from Costa Rica Discussant: Renate Hartwig (GIGA Hamburg & University of Göttingen) Julian Wichert (University of Hannover): Drought and educational outcomes: Evidence across developing countries Discussant: Wolfgang Stojetz (ISDC) Lennart Kaplan (University of Göttingen): How does African trade with the EU, US and China affects subnational growth? – Impacts and Mechanisms Discussant: Marina Dodlova (University of Münster) Salamatu Shaibu Tannor (ZEF Bonn): Conceptualizing double burden of socio-ecological systems in mining landscapes and the role of corporate sustainability: Perspectives from Ghana, West Africa Discussant: Achim Schlüter (ZMT & Constructor University Bremen)
13:30	LEADS steering group meeting

14:00	Session 4: Land-use competition and conflict Daniel Geissel (GIGA Hamburg): Heterogeneous effects of large-scale land acquisitions on conflict in sub-Saharan Africa Discussant: Emmanuel Rukundo (RWI) Hamy Raharinaivo (ZALF): Assessment of governance in relation to the implementation of FLR in the Irodo watershed (Madagascar) Discussant: Achim Schlüter (ZMT & Constructor University Bremen) Daniel Tuki (WZB Berlin Social Science Center): Is there a religious dimension to concern about farmer-herder conflicts in Nigeria? Discussant: Jann Lay (GIGA Hamburg & University of Göttingen)
15:30	Wrap-up

Our keynote speakers

Keynote Monday
Mascha Rauschenbach German Institute for Development Evaluation (Deval)
Mascha Rauschenbach is Team Leader at DEVal's Competence Centre for Evaluation Methodology. She will share her experience with promoting evidence-based policy at BMZ, with examples from evaluations on adaptation to climate change and on access to energy in rural Africa.

Keynote Tuesday
Erwin Bulte Wageningen University
Erwin Bulte is Professor of Development Economics at Wageningen University. Erwin worked extensively on natural resource economics, institutional economics and development economics, and will share broader findings from a large-scale field experiment based on a sample of villages in Ethiopia.

Questions? Emergencies? Delayed trains? Contact us: at +49 179 7309464 (Gunther) or +49 176 21012783 (Maxie), or send an email to gunther.bensch@rwi-essen.de.